Evaluation & creative bravery

CREATIVE THINKING WITH MR KELLY

Level 6 · The creative process · Worksheet

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

By the end of this worksheet I can…

- ☐ evaluate my work honestly using evidence
- ☐ show creative bravery: take risks and reflect on failures
- ☐ use What? So what? Now what? to reflect

I DO — Worked example

Read how a full-mark answer is built

You wrote: "I think my project went well and I am happy with it."

1 Rewrite this as a strong evaluation using What? So what? Now what? (3 marks)

Full-mark answer each ✓ is one mark

What: I designed a quiet reading corner for the library using beanbags and fabric screens ✓. So what: in testing, 9 of 12 pupils said it felt calmer than the rest of the library, but the screens blocked the light, so it felt gloomy ✓. Now what: I would use lighter, translucent fabric and add a lamp, then re-test with the same group ✓.

Why marks are not awarded

“I think my project went well and I am happy with it.”

0 points: no evidence, no weakness, no next step.

Evaluation & creative bravery

Level 6 · The creative process · Worksheet

YOU DO On your own No notes. Check your answers afterwards.

3 Quick check: tick one box for each.

a) When should you evaluate?
☐ Only at the very end ☐ Throughout the project ☐ Never ☐ Only if the idea fails

b) Which is the strongest evaluation?
☐ I think it went well. ☐ My poster was good. ☐ In testing, 8 of 10 users understood the message in 5 seconds, but younger users found the font hard to read, so I'd increase its size. ☐ I liked it.

c) What is creative bravery?
☐ Never changing your idea ☐ Taking risks and honestly admitting what didn't work ☐ Working alone ☐ Using bright colours

4 Key terms: write the letter of the matching description next to each term.
