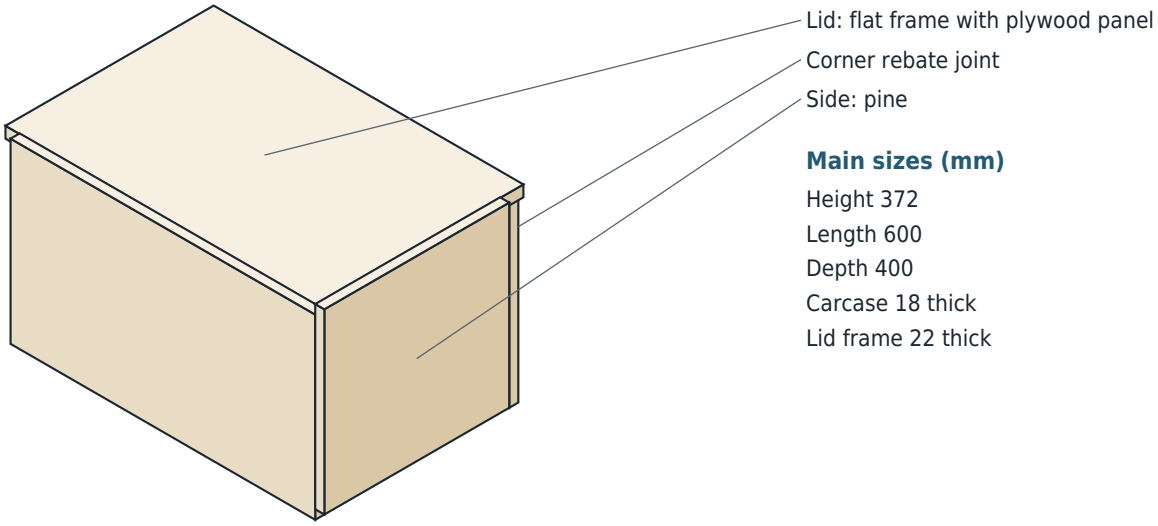
Case study 8: Toy box

National 5 · Practical Woodworking · 10 marks · open book

The product. A toy box has a carcase with corner rebate joints and a lid made from a flat frame with a plywood panel. It will be used by young children. Use the drawing to answer the questions. Answer in sentences for describe and explain questions; you can add labelled sketches.



Main sizes (mm)

Height 372
Length 600
Depth 400
Carcase 18 thick
Lid frame 22 thick

1 The corners of the box are joined with corner rebate joints.

(a) Describe one advantage of a corner rebate joint over a butt joint. (1 mark)

(b) Describe the stages in cutting the rebate by hand. (2 marks)

2 The lid frame is joined at the corners with a flat-frame joint and has a groove for the panel.

(a) Name a joint suitable for the corners of a panelled lid. (1 mark)

(b) Name the plane used to cut the groove for the panel. (1 mark)

3 The toy box will be used by young children.

Describe two features of the finish or construction that make it safe for children. (2 marks)

4 The box is made from pine.

Give two reasons why pine is a suitable material for the toy box. (2 marks)

5 State the purpose of a corner block inside the box. (1 mark)

Total: ___ / 10